Description

1989 MERCEDES BENZ 560 SL ROADSTER:

--Desert Taupe with Mushroom leather interior (Cream Beige seats with Brown dashboard), Beige carpeting, Brown convertible soft top, Factory hardtop, 28,000 miles from new, 5.6 Liter V8 engine, Automatic transmission, Superb throughout, Highly original, Concours quality.

This 560SL was originally sold through Calstar Motors Mercedes Benz in Glendale, California to its first owner Mr. Edward Fleming. This 560SL was always serviced regardless of use as shown on its service booklet as well as recent servicing invoices. It remained in California from new until 2018 making its way to a collector owner in New York. The 560SL has never seen inclement weather and is in exceptional condition throughout.

With its classic lines, sporty demeanor and V8 power, this 560SL is a great buy in today's collector market and presents an excellent opportunity to purchase a timeless Mercedes Benz Roadster that can be enjoyed effortlessly during all seasons.

This 560SL is complete with both tops, its original Becker Grand Prix radio (a modern USB unit has been installed), original owner's manual, original maintenance and warranty booklets, spare wheel, jack and service records. It has always seen proper ownership and has been well-cared for from new as can be seen by its stunning condition.

This 560SL is excellent in every way and ready for immediate enjoyment.
