Description

Located within easy reach of the Parc Josaphat and Place Meiser, this delightful Art Deco house was constructed in 1927. Its outstanding features include a charming facade listed in the Architectural Heritage of Brussels and a magnificent hall presenting a stunning staircase overlooked by a typical 1930s glass roof. It comprises the following facilities: large living room, dining room, study, large fitted kitchen with terrace/garden access, four bedrooms, two shower rooms (potential for an additional bathroom), games room. The property also includes several cellars and the option to purchase outdoor (25,000 EUR) and indoor (30,000 EUR) parking spaces. Energy performance: D-
