Description

Lightweight, stylish and practical, the Mason & Sons Safari Jacket is the perfect piece of outerwear for the Spring and Summer months. It is a modern take on a traditional classic that was first inspired by British khaki drill uniforms worn by soldiers in the late 19th century.

Our modern Khaki Safari Jacket is made in Italy using technical microfibres, which are suited to the urban jungle.

The jacket features an adjustable elastic waist, zip and button closing, reinforced buttons, two chest pockets, two hip pockets and two internal pockets.

This is a slim-fit garment, and we recommend selecting a size up from your normal chest measurement.
