Description

When BMW introduced the E23 7-series in the mid 80's journalist were so impressed by it that they called it 'the best car in the world'. The Bavarian company introduced lots of technical marvels and novities in this series, that made the e23 series set the standard until the mid '90's for premium luxury cars.

The powerful 6-cylinder engine with its 211bhp coupled to the great ZF automatic gearbox shifts smoothly through all his gears recognize the widely acclaimed BMW driving experience of this 80's limo.

The 735i we have on offer here. Delivered new in Germany in 1991 is certainly one off the rare survivors in a concours state cars of this model.

Its original Calypso red paint is immaculate ,its grey velour interior looks as if it just left the factory. Even its toolkit and original Blaupunkt Modena stereo is with the car. This BMW was cherished by its former owner and it shows. On paper u full service booklet and complete history in bills shows proof of the care given to this gem.

No high mileage car but a cherished one definitely a future classic;
