French title

This Jaguar XJS V12 Cabriolet was registered on November 16th, 1988. It therefore has the 5.3L V12 engine and automatic transmission. If its bodywork deserves some care, especially on the lower left rear fender, its interior has nevertheless been refurbished with good quality leather. The top has also been redone by an artisan. The mechanics furthermore show normal operation. It is thus an elegant convertible, a youngtimers in vogue, which only asks to find back its British nobility.

File viewable on request.
