= Remarks =

Our Nico most certainly put in the necessary miles in to find this fully loaded Range Rover Sport TDV8 with the right finish and without privacy glass. They are as rare as hens teeth! Sometimes it is more testing to find a car without a certain option than one with that particular option. The first thing that springs to mind when describing this 2014 Range Rover Sport is: full, fuller fully filled. There truly cant be much absent from this Range Rover Sport. It is the Autobiography Dynamic version which has Two-Tone finish, a glass tilt and sliding roof, a full-sized spare wheel, rear entertainment system, Sat-Nav, comfort seats, digital dashboard, electric rear hatch, two-tone upholstery and climate control to name but a few details. The dashboard has the same ivory-expresso leather upholstery as do the seats. This Range Rover benefits from air-suspension in tandem with its All-Terrain response system. No matter what the terrain, the car will always select the correct mode in order to cope with the condition afoot. Whilst this Range Rover compares very favourably to you average Rolls-Royce on the luxury front, underneath it remains a proper off-roader. The Range Rover quite rightly earns its accolade of being the ultimate allrounder. In our case helped by a fantastic 8-cylinder diesel engine. The 4.4 litre V8 bi-turbo delivers a magnificent 700 Nm at 1,750 revs and 340 PS at 3,500 revs a minute. Whilst weighing in at a hefty 2,398 Kg it manages 0-100 km/hr in 6.9 seconds topping out at no less than 225 km/hr! The V8 engine is attached to the much prized ZF 8-speed automatic. The car stands proudly on its 21" alloys and is in excellent condition. The bodywork does show a small amount of minor blemishes commiserate with its age and milage. The paintwork is very neat and clearly has always been treated with respect. The interior trim has only gained in appeal over the years and is also in fine shape. The car comes well documented with a full service and maintenance history. To be honest this car does not want for anything and at less than 155,000 kilometres it has just about been run in. This is a brilliant Range Rover Sport with its fantastic finish and the best engine. Gallery Aaldering is Europe's leading Classic Cars specialist since 1975!
