Description

The Morgan Plus 4 was Morgan Motor Company's first car with four wheels, introduced in 1936 following the end of the production of the famed three wheeled motorcycle engine models. Its model designation 4/4 stood for four wheels and four cylinders. Apart from a break during world war II the 4/4 has been in continuous production from its debut right up to the current day.

Morgan is based in Malvern, Worcestershire and builds all its cars to order, using traditional techniques. Boasting all of the joys of driving a sweeping winged 1930s classic car with all the safety, comfort and reliability of the latest automotive technology. Powered by an in line 4-cylinder 1600cc DOHC 16 valve engine producing 115bhp the Plus 4 remains a firm favourite with classic car enthusiasts around the globe.

The Morgan Plus 4 offered here for sale by Autostorico is a 1995 "M plate" finished in Serantium Ice
