At the next Schuler auction in Zurich from March 22nd to 26th; desirable works of art, watches, collectibles and design classics, will go under the hammer. Here are our favourites.

Schuler's auction catalogue once again includes more than 2,000 lots. And as always, it is a pleasure to scroll through the eclectic treasure trove and come across objects that you don't need rationally - but still absolutely have to own. We would be tempted to raise our hands on the following ten works of art, clocks and collectibles. You can find the entire catalog in the Classic Driver Market.

We would bid on these lots
