Description

Enjoying a peaceful and secluded location, this vast hilltop property offers splendid views of the surrounding mountains. Dating from the late-17th century, the main house (450 m²) has been the subject of various renovations. The property also presents a beautifully renovated stone outbuilding (100 m²) that could serve as a guest house or office space, and another building (135 m²) housing five horse boxes and a saddlery. The additional facilities include a charming "gazebo" (former water tower), a bread oven and a well. The outdoor spaces are all conducive to your full appreciation of this stunning setting.
