Lead

When Touring unveiled their new Arese RH95 two weeks ago, we couldn't stop discussing the perfect spec for our favourite carrozzeria's 95th anniversary car. But in the end, there was only one option for a Classic Driver limited edition.

Three years ago, we celebrated our own 20th anniversary with the strictly limited Aston Martin DB11 Classic Driver Edition. And while we are still in love with the car's traditional grey and green colour scheme, there's certainly some space in our garage for a tailor-made, mid-engined Italian sports car to put next to our beloved British GT. Now our friends at Touring Superleggera have mocked up a beautiful Classic Driver Edition of their all-new Arese RH95 - and we are more than tempted to place an order. If only we could find our company credit card...
