Description

Featuring diamond-set hour markers, this exquisite black dial stands out from the platinum case while still providing a discreet and charismatic appeal as well as a masculine aesthetic. Patek Philippe's long line of perpetual calendar wristwatches are classic timepieces - suitable for all seasons and occasions, and this exceptional, hardly worn contemporary example will surely attract collectors looking for a traditional complicated timepiece that will easily fit under a dress cuff. Our 5140P is offered complete with its Certificate of Origin and fitted presentation box and documentations.
