This sensational 190 SL was completed on June 7, 1956 and delivered to the Mercedes distributor in Los Angeles finished in the rare and desirable DB 543 Strawberry Red with a black leather interior.

This particular 190 SL presents exceptionally well having benefited from a correct and high level restoration which earned the car AACA National First, Senior and Grand National awards. Finished in its original colors, the car is further appointed with a factory hardtop and the ultra-rare third-passenger transverse seat.

This numbers-matching car is documented by a Mercedes-Benz data card, confirming the authenticity. And the attention to detail and overall correctness of the restoration is only bettered by proper mechanical sorting and its driving ability. Eligible for countless events given its build date, it is both ready to show or drive.
