Description

In 2013, Aston Martin unveiled the Rapide S, based on the Rapide, the brand's first four-door car. Visually impressive, the difference between the two models can be immediately noticed by the assertive front grille. For many, this is the Grand Coupé of the most desired luxury segment in the market. As is customary for the British brand, handcrafted luxury details are visible throughout the Rapide S interior. Using the finest leather qualities, a wide range of woods and other fine materials, each interior is handcrafted with precision absolute. On each embroidered 'AML' logo there are over five thousand dots, intricately placed to create the perfect finish.

The front positioning of the 6.0-litre V12 engine and the eight-speed Touchtronic III gearbox at the rear of the Rapide S make it possible to achieve an almost perfect weight distribution. It's the perfect match between on-board comfort and driving dynamics.

This unit was sold new in Portugal and only has 14,000 kilometers. Excellent condition.
