Take home the automotive world's best kept secrets from Silverstone Auctions' upcoming sale

Lead
On the 14th of November, you'll be able to bid on some of the lesser-known greats of the automotive kingdom. JDM super-stars and hidden gems are going under the hammer at the NEC Classic Motor Show.

Whether you're a fan of German super saloons, French hot hatch royalty, British Greats, or JDM icons, Silverstone Auctions' sale at the NEC Classic Motor Show 2021 has something for you. From the Land of the Rising Sun we have arguably the most drool-worthy Subaru of all time - a lovely 1998 22B, while fans of Gran Turismo 4 will undoubtedly spark a bidding war over the R34 Nissan GTR Skyline. Those who prefer British classics will be equally pleased as a stunningly restored 1971 Jensen Interceptor FF II is up for grabs. However, the 1989 Ford Sierra RS Cosworth is equally worth a look as the first Ford ever to wear the Cosworth badge.

If hot hatches are more your style then you'll want to ready your wallet for the Renault 5 Turbo 2 finished in the excellent combination of red and black. On the other hand, if you're a Porsche addict then you'll be able to choose from a multitude of excellent 911s, including the much-praised 991-generation 911 R, and a 996.1 GT3 wearing an unbelievably cool German Polizei livery. There truly is something for everyone at this auction, just take a look at our Top 10 below if you don't believe us!
