Description

Auto Storica is pleased to announce the sale of the most special member of the XJ line, in the most special version, the Daimler Sovereign Coupé.

This specification, with 4.2 engine and automatic gearbox, mounts the same wheelbase as the Series II Saloon of that time, but equipped with only two doors and a so-called "pillarless" frame. Difficult to find, especially in this condition.

This iconic coupe from the 1970s in "Squadron Blue" is one of a total of 1,677 Daimler 6-cylinder Coupe.

Its interiors are presented original and well preserved in black leather. The original mileage just over 34.000Kms. They make it a solid and reliable classic car that is also suitable for long trips.
