Description

- Well-documented, limited production special convertible
- Single family ownership for 40 years
- In original, unrestored condition, according to the consignor
- One of only 836 for the 1954 model year
- Signed mileage statement from 1981 indicating 40,515 miles
- Showing 59,864 miles on the odometer at cataloguing time
- Delivered new to Buick of Woodbury in Connecticut, according to included copy of original bill of sale
- Finished in factory Baffin Green with white soft-top over red leather
- Powered by 322 cu.-in. V-8 engine paired with a Dynaflo automatic transmission
- Well-equipped from the factory with power steering, power brakes, power windows, power seats, power top, heater and defroster, Selectronic AM radio with power antenna, and electric clock
- Rides on wide whitewall tires mounted to wire wheels with spinners
- Said to have been well maintained and driven regularly
- Includes copies of two bills of sale
- Represents a rare opportunity to own an uncommon, mid-century Buick convertible with well-documented history—a true survivor
