Description

- Registered in Genoa in 1964 with original number plates and logbook. This is one of the last chassis of the 500 D, probably the most iconic and popular version among enthusiasts.
- Sandy beige colour and beige interior, the car underwent a complete restoration several years ago, but has hardly been used since. Bodywork and interior in excellent condition.
- Rostrums mounted on the bumpers, typical of the version for the American market, which were available in Italy as an option.
- Mechanics complete and original, it has been stationary for several years in a dry place. Needs a general check to be able to be restarted.No valid MOT.
- The car must be picked up from Turin.
