Description

- Car registered in Naples in 1985, but number plates and documents from the province of Avellino of 1992.
- White with black interior and green details typical of this special series. Sound bodywork and without the slightest trace of rust, it was professionally repainted a few years ago and is in excellent condition. The seats, panels and carpets are original and well preserved.
- Complete, original and fully functional mechanics.
- The Quadrifoglio Verde (famous Alfa Romeo Green Four-Leaf Clover logo) was launched in 1983 and is immediately recognizable by its eight-hole rims, green badge and special interior with green-textured black seats and panels, as well as green carpeting.
- This is very rare version is the best on the market.
- The car must be collected from Turin.
