Description

The Fiat Panda 4x4's beauty, versatility, and rugged charms have made it an icon in its' native Italy since it burst onto the scene in 1983. Having always appreciated the pluck and charm of these beautifully engineered SUV alternatives, The Cultivated Collector wished to bring the irresistible Panda 4x4 stateside, but executed in a manner fitting of The Cultivated Collector's reputation for no-compromise excellence in quality and design. As such, a final-year, first-series Fiat Panda 4x4 Verde Alpi, Chassis 69640, was selected to receive a no-expense spared, rotisserie restoration overseen by Gulfblue Automobili.

The end result yields a Panda 4x4 that is not only as-new, but also a unique example of the vibrant and bold style of the 1980s, resplendent in its Verde Alpi exterior and Missoni interior. A car that is as ready for the beach or mountains as it is ready for the finest shops or restaurants, dressed in ultimate style, as envisioned by Matthew Ivanhoe of The Cultivated Collector.
