Plan your next getaway with these handy guides from Montamont

Lead
Presenting a new way of travelling that focuses on destinations full of character and love, Montamont's latest offerings shine a fresh light on the Alpine region.

For those seeking to find the very best hotspots for dining, lounging, photographing, and everything in between, Montamont's new line of guides have it covered. With over 220 pages of stunning photography with engaging and enjoyable accompanying text, each guide contains over 40 places to stay the night once the breath-taking views become too much.

When travelling to such idilic locations, it can sometimes be a little overwhelming trying to cram so much into your days, but these books take the pressure away and allow you to enjoy every moment. In our favourite, the Südtirol guide, Montamont invite you on an extraordinary journey along pre-planned routes from the Brennero Pass to Bolzano, from the Resia Pass to sunny Merano, and along winding roads to the foot of the impressive Three Peaks.
