

CLASSIC DRIVER

Italian, American or German? There's a collector car for you at this auction

Lead
Wannenes' online auction from the 1st to the 14th of July is packed with interesting and rare collector cars from across the globe. Look below and see if one takes your fancy!

Wannenes are currently hosting an online auction from the 1st to the 14th of July, and while it may not have thousands of listings, there are plenty of attainable and desirable classics that deserve a spot on your drive. Looking for the ultimate source of summer fun? The headlining 1970 Porsche 911 S Targa is almost impossible to beat with its matching numbers and original hue of vibrant orange. If you prefer to take it easy on your afternoon drives, there's no better land yacht than the gorgeously gargantuan 1959 Cadillac Coupe DeVille. Even those with a craving for Italian won't be disappointed, both the manual 1994 Maserati Ghibli and 1964 Abarth 595 certainly caught our eye. So, regardless of your preferred automotive country of origin, check out our ten favourites from this exciting auction below. You might well find something you like!

Here are 10 collector cars that caught our eye!

Gallery

